"The PD was great! Totally worth attending. Showed me that Kagan strategies are possible not only in person but online as well!" ~ Denise Zendejas 6/7 Special Education Teacher

We want you to receive the same experience in our online Kagan training events as you would at any in-person workshop. While it may not be feasible to have our Kagan workshops in person due to COVID-19, it doesn't mean we can't go on. It just means that Kagan workshops have become virtual. We have worked hard to insure that online training sessions maintain all of the interaction and energy of our in-person workshops. With Zoom, we are able to have Trainers interact in real-time with you during your online Kagan workshops.

Zoom allows Kagan Trainers to use powerful collaboration tools like video breakout rooms, multi-sharing, polling, and group chats to involve every participant just like normal.

Because of this, much of the face-to-face interaction and engagement is replicated, no matter where participants may be or what device they may be using. No need to purchase Zoom as it is free for individuals.

About five days prior to the online workshop you register for, you will receive your invitation to the training via Zoom. This email will provide you with your Kagan workshop link and password you need to enter the workshop.

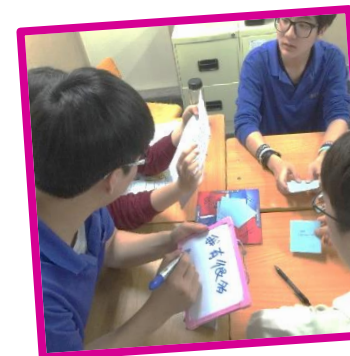

You will also receive your Kagan Cooperative Learning Textbook and Workshop Workbook(s) by email as well. You will want to have these, along with a pen, ready to go when the workshop begins.

It's that easy!

Cooperative Learning

Both Secondary and elementary teachers will increase engagement, boost test scores, and reduce the achievement gap by using the teaching strategies in this workshop. Learn how to build powerful learning teams in your classroom and use proven Kagan methods for decision making, Teambuilding, Classbuilding, communication skills, and social skills. By using the strategies you learn, you will provide social-emotional learning while delivering academic content. Join us to fill your toolbox with easy-to-use, full-engagement strategies for online learning or social distancing that you can put to use immediately in your classroom to increase student engagement and achievement!

CEU's & Professional Development Hours
Kagan Professional Development workshop hours are globally accepted as required PD hours for teaching certificate renewal and CEUs*

"I enjoyed this online session as much as I enjoyed the one in-person! I'm already planning the strategies I'll be using with my seventh and eighth grades when we go back to school! Thank you!" ~ Lilian Bercowsky, ELD/Spanish Teacher

"I really feel excited about teaching again after taking the Kagan Live Online PD. The tools of shaping the structure for collaborative learning are exactly what I needed." ~ Edna Briseno 2nd grade Hawaiian Avenue STEAM Magnet.
